

The SACE Board acknowledges and pays respect to the past, present, and future Traditional Custodians and Elders of this nation and the continuation of cultural, spiritual, and educational practices of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Please note: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples should be aware that this website may contain names of people who have passed away.

Examples of Acknowledgments

Examples of ideas to support Assessment Type 3: Acknowledgement include:

- diversity and identities (resistance over time by various Aboriginal leaders, Aboriginal organisations that support Aboriginal people communities and educate the wider community to promote respect of Aboriginal cultures, histories, and identities)
- cultural expressions (anthology of music lyrics or poems written and performed by Aboriginal people that tell a story over time, the importance of Aboriginal-led cultural festivals, diversity of Aboriginal artists in traditional and contemporary mediums)
- contemporary experiences (family history for Aboriginal students-oral histories, cultural maintenance and ways in which families stay connected, community voices on contemporary experiences, voice, treaty, truth campaigns, Survival Day organisers etc. Cultural tourism – authentic Aboriginal-run and led tourism, the arts – diversity of experiences of Aboriginal artists across time and location).
